Section VI Cause of Action:

Plaintiffs bring conversion/trespass to chattels, breach of bailment, and negligence claims under the Federal Tort Claims Act, 28 U.S.C. §§ 2671–80, and California state law; a claim for breach of bailment contract under the Little Tucker Act, 28 U.S.C. §§ 1346(a)(2); a claim for the taking of their property without just compensation under the Little Tucker Act and directly under the Fifth Amendment’s Takings Clause; Fourth Amendment search-and-seizure claims under Bivens, the Westfall Act, California’s Bane Act, and directly under the Fourth Amendment; and an as-applied Due Process Claim directly under the Fifth Amendment. Plaintiffs also bring their claims under the Declaratory Judgments Act, 28 U.S.C. §§ 2201, 2202, as well as directly under the U.S. Constitution. Plaintiffs seek damages for the loss of their property and declaratory relief that the Constitution entitles them to a remedy for the loss of their property.
